

Auburn Placer Performing Arts Center

presents

2015 Academy Award for Best Picture Best Director Alejandro G. Iñárritu

A washed-up actor, who once played an iconic superhero, battles his ego and attempts to recover his family, his career and himself in the days leading up to the opening of his Broadway play.

Special Live Guest Appearance by Perry King - A Conversation with Accomplished Actor Perry King - Please join him afterward for an in depth conversation about "Birdman," the nature of acting and actors, and what made this film standout as Oscar's Best Picture of the Year. King made his film debut in the 1972 film Slaughterhouse-Five. He has appeared in dozens of feature films, television series and television movies. In 1984, King was nominated for a Golden Globe award for his role in the TV movie The Hasty Heart. He landed the role of Cody Allen on the series Riptide. He portrayed the role of Hayley Armstrong on Melrose Place. He also appeared as Richard Williams in the NBC TV series Titans and as the President of the United States in the 2004 film The Day After Tomorrow. A graduate of Yale Drama School, he trained at Julliard and has also appeared on stage, including Broadway where he notably played Col. Jessup in "A Few Good Men," directed by Aaron Sorkin. This gives him a unique perspective on acting for stage and screen. This fall King is producing his first film "The Divide" shooting at his ranch near Auburn.

Thursday, March 19, 2015

7:00 pm

Only $6 dollars

@ the State Theatre

Sponsored by MERITAGE EURO AUTO CARE

State Theatre – 985 Lincoln Way – Auburn, CA 95603
Box Office 530-885-0156 www.livefromauburn.com